

Discipline: Architecture and Urban Sciences

Candidate's Profile:

The person eligible to apply for admission to the CUT Doctoral School in the scientific discipline of architecture and urban sciences must have graduated from a uniform Master's Degree study programme or from a 2nd cycle study programme in: architecture and urban planning (the professional title of Master in Engineering Architect), architecture (the professional title of Master in Engineering Architect), landscape architecture (the professional title of Master in Engineering, Master in Engineering Landscape Architect) or spatial development (the professional title of Master in Engineering).

Additional conditions:

The candidate to the CUT DS has completed a professional internship of at least 6 months consistent with the planned discipline of education in the CUT Doctoral School (architecture and urban sciences), confirmed by a signature and stamp of a person authorised to supervise internships in architecture and urban planning.

Conditions of the entrance examination

- Oral examination, three questions from the list of problem areas indicated below – date of the examination according to the time schedule of the CUT DS recruitment process;
- Candidate interview (on inter alia the individual research plan) – only those persons will be admitted who have obtained no less than 50% of the total possible score in the examination – date of the interview according to the time schedule of the CUT DS recruitment process;

Problem areas for the entrance examination:

- architecture,
- urban design and spatial planning,
- history of architecture and urban planning as well as architectural heritage preservation,
- technical and legal problems in architecture,
- general knowledge in the area of culture and art.